No new share warrant shall be issued to replace one that has been lost, unless the Company is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed.

Applications for the replacement of share certificates from holders of domestic investment shares who have lost their certificates shall be dealt with in accordance with Article 144 of the Company Law.

Applications for the replacement of share certificates from holders of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China who have lost their certificates may be dealt with in accordance with the laws, securities exchange regulations and other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of holders of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China is kept.

Where holders of foreign investment shares of a company listed outside the People's Republic of China, which is listed in Hong Kong, apply for replacement of their certificates after losing their certificates, such replacement shall comply with the following requirements:

1. the applicant shall submit the application in the form prescribed by the Company accompanied by a notarial certificate or statutory declaration. The notarial certificate or statutory declaration shall include the applicant's reason for the application, the circumstances and proof of the loss of the share certificate, other details which support the reason for the application and a declaration that no other person may require registration as a shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares;
2. the Company shall not have received any declaration requiring registration as a shareholder in respect of the shares from any person other than the applicant before it decides to issue a replacement share certificate;
3. if the Company decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, it shall publish a public announcement of its intention to do so in the newspapers or periodicals designated by the board of directors; the period of the public announcement shall be 90 days, during which such announcement shall be published repeatedly at least once every 30 days;
4. before publishing the public announcement of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, the Company shall submit a copy of the announcement to be published to the securities exchange where it is listed and may proceed with publication after having received a reply from the securities exchange confirming that the announcement has been displayed in the securities exchange. The Company shall display the public announcement in the securities exchange for a period of 90 days.

If the application for issuance of a replacement share certificate was made without consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall mail to such shareholder a photocopy of the public announcement that it intends to publish;

5. at the expiration of the 90-day period provided for in items 3) and 4) hereof, if the Company has not received any objection to the issuance of a replacement share certificate from any person, it may issue a replacement share certificate according to the application of the applicant;
6. when the Company issues a replacement share certificate under this Article, it shall immediately cancel the original share certificate and record such cancellation and the issuance of the replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders; and

7. all expenses of the Company for the cancellation of the original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant. The Company shall be entitled to refuse to take any action until the applicant has provided reasonable security.

Article 51

After the Company has issued a replacement share certificate in accordance with its Articles of Association, it shall not delete from the register of shareholders the name of a bona fide purchaser of the replacement share certificate mentioned above or of a shareholder that is subsequently registered as the owner of the shares(provided that he is a bona fide purchaser).

Article 52

The Company shall not be liable for any damages suffered by any person from the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate, unless the claimant can prove fraud on the part of the Company.

 - 4) reports of the aggregate par value, number of shares, and highest and lowest prices of each category of shares bought back by the Company since the last fiscal year as well as all the expenses paid by the Company therefor; and
 - 5) the minutes of shareholders' meetings;
- 6. participate in the distribution of the remaining property of the Company according to their shareholding when the Company is terminated or liquidated; and
- 7. other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 55

Holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall have the following obligations:

- 1. to abide by the Articles of Association of the Company;
- 2. to pay subscription fees on the basis of the shares subscribed by them and the method of capital injection; and
- 3. other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association. Shareholders shall not bear any liability for further contribution to share capital other than the conditions agreed to by the subscriber of the relevant shares on subscription.

Article 56

In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the securities exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed, controlling shareholders (as defined in Article 57 hereof) may not, in the exercise of their shareholders' powers, make decisions prejudicial to the interests of all or part of the shareholders as a result of the exercise of their voting rights on the issues set forth below:

1. relieving a director or supervisor of the responsibility to act honestly in the best interest of the Company;
2. approving a director or supervisor (for his own or another person's benefit) of depriving the Company of its property in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are favourable to the Company; or
3. approving a director or supervisor (for his own or another person's benefit) of depriving other shareholders of their rights or interests, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights, unless pursuant to a restructuring of the Company submitted to and adopted by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company.

Article 57

For the purposes of the preceding Article, the term "controlling shareholder" shall refer to a person that satisfies any of the following conditions:

1. he, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half number of the directors;
2. he, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or control the exercise of 30% or more of the Company's voting rights;
3. he, acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30% or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company; or
4. he, acting alone or in concert with others, actually controls the Company in any other manner.

CHAPTER 8 SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 58

The shareholders' general meeting shall be the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise the functions and powers according to law.

Article 59

The shareholders' general meeting shall exercise the following functions and powers:

1. decide on the business policies and investment plans of the Company;
2. elect and replace directors and decide on matters concerning the remuneration of directors;
3. elect and replace the supervisors who are to be appointed from among the shareholders' representatives and decide on matters concerning the remuneration of supervisors;
4. examine and approve reports of the board of directors;
5. examine and approve reports of the board of supervisors;
6. examine and approve the Company's annual financial budget and final account proposals;
7. examine and approve the Company's plans for profit distribution and making up losses;
8. pass resolutions concerning the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
9. pass resolutions on matters such as the merger, division, dissolution or liquidation of the Company;
10. pass resolutions on the issuance of bonds by the Company;

13. examine the motions raised by the shareholders' representing 5% or more of the Company's voting shares; and

14. other matters that laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association require to be resolved by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 60

Without the prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, the Company may not conclude any contact with any person other than a director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff of the Company for the delegation of the whole business management or part of the important business management of the Company to that person.

Article 61

Shareholders' general meetings shall include annual shareholders' meetings and extraordinary shareholders' meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. The date and place shall be decided as well. Annual meetings shall be convened once a year and shall be held within six months following the preceding fiscal year.

The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting within two months of the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

1. the number of directors is less than the number provided for in the Company Law or less than two-thirds prescribed in the Articles of Association of the Company;
2. the losses of the Company that have not been made up reach one-third of the total share capital of the Company;
3. shareholders holding 10% or more of the Company's voting shares required in writing an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting to be convened; or
4. the board of directors considers that there is a need or the board of supervisors proposes a meeting.
5. the accounting firms employed by the Company require a meeting in accordance with article 175.
6. more than 2 independent directors proposes a meeting.

Article 62

When the Company is to hold a shareholders' general meeting, it shall issue a written notice 45 days prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of the matters to be examined at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders that intend to attend the shareholders' general meeting shall, within 20 days prior to the meeting, deliver a written reply to the Company on the meeting attendance.

Article 63

When the Company is to hold an annual shareholders' general meeting, shareholders holding 5% or more of the total number of the Company's voting shares shall be entitled to propose new motions in writing to the Company. The Company shall include in the agenda for the meeting the matters in the motions that fall within the scope of duties of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 64

Based on the written replies received 20 days prior to a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting is more than half of the total number of the Company's voting shares, the Company may hold the shareholders' general meeting. If not, the Company shall within five days inform the shareholders once again of the matters to be examined at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting in the form of a public announcement. Upon notification by public announcement, the Company may hold the shareholders' general meeting.

Extraordinary shareholders' general meeting may not decide on matters not specified in the notice or announcement.

Article 65

The notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

1. it shall be made in writing;
2. it shall specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
3. it shall describe the matters to be discussed at the meeting;

4. it shall provide to the shareholders the information and explanation necessary for them to make a wise decision on the matters to be discussed. This principal shall apply (but not limit) when the Company proposes a merger, buy-back of shares, reorganization of share capital or other restructuring, it shall provide the specific conditions and contract (if any) of the transaction under discussions and earnestly explain the cause and result of the transaction;
5. it shall disclose the nature and extent of conflict of interests, if any, of any director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff in any matter to be discussed; and provide an explanation of the difference, if any, between the way in which the matter to be discussed would affect such director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff in his capacity as shareholder and the way in which such matter would affect other shareholders of the same category;
6. it shall contain the full text of any special resolution proposed to be adopted at the meeting;
7. it shall contain a conspicuous statement that shareholders entitled to attend and vote have the right to entrust one or more proxies to attend and vote on their behalf and that such proxy need not be a shareholder; and
8. it shall state the time and place for the delivery of the meeting's proxy's forms.

Article 66

The notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall be delivered to the shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote thereat) who are in the register of shareholders on the date of authentic right by assigned persons or per-paid mail to the recipient's address shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic investment shares, the notice of a shareholders' general meeting may also be given by public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers or periodicals designated by the State Council authorities in charge of securities during the period between 45 and 50 days before the meeting is held. Once the announcement is made, all holders of domestic investment shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' meeting.

Article 67

A meeting and the resolutions adopted to thereat shall not be invalidated as a result of the accidental omission to give notice of the meeting to, or the failure of receiving such notice by, a person entitled to receive such notice.

Article 68

That a copy of either (i) the directors' report, accompanied by the balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) and profit and loss account or income and expenditure account or (ii) the summary financial report, shall, at least 21 days before the date of the general meeting, be delivered or sent by post to the registered address of every holder of H Shares.

Article 69

Company gives notice by advertisement and such advertisement may be published in the newspapers. There is no prohibition on the giving of notice to members whose registered address is outside Hong Kong.

Article 70

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more persons (who need not be shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. Such proxy may exercise the following rights according to his entrustment by the shareholder:

1. the shareholder's right to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
2. the right to require by himself or in conjunction with others to make a resolution by voting; and
3. the right to vote by raising hands or ballot, except that if a shareholder has appointed more than one proxy, such proxies may only exercise their voting rights by ballot.

If the shareholder is the recognized clearing house or its agencies (recognized clearing house), the shareholder may entrust one or more proxies for any shareholders' general meeting or any category shareholders' meeting. If shareholder entrust more than one proxy, the instrument shall state clearly the number of the shares represented by each proxy. The proxies above-mentioned may represent the recognized clearing house to exercise the rights, just as the proxies are individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 71

Shareholders shall entrust their proxies by written instruments that shall be signed by the entrusting parties or such proxies. Where the entrusting party is a legal person, the instrument shall be sealed by the legal person or signed by its director(s) or duly authorized proxies.

The entrusting party shall state clearly the number of the shares represented by the proxy. If the entrusting party entrust more than one proxy, the instrument shall state clearly the number of the shares represented by each proxy.

Article 72

The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be placed at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting within 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or within 24 hours prior to the specified time of the vote. Where the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the entrusting party, the power of attorney or other document authorizing the signature shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorizing document shall be placed together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

Where the entrusting party is a legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by resolution of its board of directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the Company's shareholders' meetings as the representative of such legal person.

Article 73

Any form issued by the board of directors of the Company to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast an affirmative or negative vote and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted during discussions at the meeting. The instrument of appointment shall specify that in the absence of instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

Article 74

Where the entrusting party has died, lost capacity for acts, revoked the proxy or the signed instrument of appointment prior to the voting, or the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the terms of instrument of proxy shall remain valid as long as the Company did not receive a written notice of the event before the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 75

An individual shareholders may entrust a proxy to attend shareholders' general meeting. The proxy shall show the power of attorney issued by shareholders and the identification certificates of the proxy. Institutional shareholder may entrust representative or proxy to attend shareholders' general meeting. The representative or proxy shall show identification certificates and the legal representative's certificates or the copy of resolution of board of directors or other decision-making organization to entrust the representative or proxy. The resolution shall be authenticated.

Article 76

Resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting can be ordinary resolutions or special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Special resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Shareholders (including the proxy of shareholders) attending the shareholders general meeting shall vote only for or only against on any particular resolution. If the shareholders or the proxy of shareholders abstain from voting, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 77

When shareholders (including proxies) vote at the shareholders' general meeting, they shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting rights that they represent. Each share shall carry one voting right.

Adequate voting rights will, in appropriate circumstances, be secured to preference shareholders.

Article 78

Votes of the shareholders' general meeting shall be taken by raising hands for resolutions, unless the following persons require voting before or after any vote by raising hands for resolutions:

1. the chairman of the meeting;
2. at least two shareholders with voting rights or their proxies; or
3. one or several shareholders (including proxies) holding totally or separately 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless somebody proposes voting by ballot, the chairman of the meeting shall declare whether the proposal has been adopted according to the results of the vote by raising hand, and shall record the same in the minutes of the meeting, which shall serve as final evidence without having to state the number or proportion of the votes for or against resolution adopted at the meeting.

The demand for a vote by ballot may be withdrawn by the person who made it.

Article 79

If the matter demanded to be voted upon by ballot is the election of the chairman or the adjournment of the meeting, a ballot shall be taken immediately. If a ballot is demanded for any other matter, such ballot shall be taken at the time decided upon by the chairman and the meeting may proceed with the discussion of other matters; the result of the ballot shall still be regarded as a resolution passed at that meeting.

Article 80

When a ballot is held, shareholders (including proxies) having the right to two or more votes need not use all of their voting rights in the same way.

Article 81

When the number of votes for and against a resolution is equal, whether the vote is taken by raising hands or by ballot, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 82

The following matters shall be resolved by way of an ordinary resolution of the shareholders' general meeting:

1. work reports of the board of directors and the board of supervisors;
2. plans for the distribution of profits and making up of losses drafted by the board of directors;
3. removal of members of the board of directors and the board of supervisors, their remuneration and method of payment of their remuneration;
4. the Company's annual budget, final accounts, balance sheet, profit statement and other financial statements; and
5. matters other than those that laws, administrative regulations or the Company's Articles of Association require to be passed by way of a special resolution.

Article 83

The following matters shall be resolved by way of a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting:

1. increase or reduction of the Company share capital and issuance of any category of shares, warrants or other similar securities;
2. issuance of Company's bonds;
3. division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
4. amendment of the Articles of Association of the Company; and
5. other matters that, as resolved by way of an ordinary resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, may have a significant impact on the Company and require adoption by way of a special resolution.

Article 84

When the Shareholders' General Meeting considers matters relating to an affiliate transaction, the affiliate shareholders shall not participate in the vote, and the number of the voting shares represented by them shall not count toward the total number of valid voting shares. The public announcement of the resolutions of the Shareholders' General Meeting shall fully disclose the way the unaffiliated shareholders voted. If special circumstances make it impossible for the affiliate shareholders to recuse themselves, the vote may be taken according to normal procedure after the Company has obtained the approval of the competent authority, and a detailed explanation shall be given in the public announcement of the resolutions of the Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 85

Shareholders requesting the convening of an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or a meeting of shareholders of different categories shall proceed in accordance with the procedures set forth below:

1. two or more shareholders holding a total of 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held may sign one or more written requests of identical form and substance requesting the board of directors to convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or a meeting of shareholders of different categories and stating the subject of the meeting. The board of directors shall convene the shareholders' general meeting or the meeting of shareholders of different categories as soon as possible after having received the above-mentioned written request. The shareholding referred to above shall be calculated as of the day on which the written request is made; and

2. if the board of directors fails to issue a notice of such a meeting within 30 days after having received the above-mentioned written notice, the shareholders who made such request may themselves convene the meeting within four months after the board of directors received the request. The procedures according to which they convene such meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedures according to which shareholders' meetings are to be convened by the board of directors.

Where shareholders convene and hold a meeting because the board of directors failed to hold such meeting pursuant to a request as mentioned above, the reasonable expenses incurred by such shareholders shall be borne by the Company and shall be deducted from the sums owed by the Company to the negligent directors.

Article 86

Shareholders' general meeting shall be convened and presided over by the chairman of the board. Where the chairman of the board cannot attend such a meeting for any reason, the meeting shall be convened and presided over by the (a) vice chairman of the board. Where both the chairman and the vice chairman of the board (or vice chairmen of the board) are unable to attend the meeting, the board of directors may designate a director of the Company to convene and preside over the meeting on its behalf. Where no chairman is designated, the shareholders attending the meeting may elect one person to preside over the meeting. If for any reason the shareholders are unable to elect a chairman, the shareholder holding the largest number of voting shares and attending the meeting (whether in person or by proxy) shall preside over the meeting.

Article 87

The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for deciding whether or not a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting has been passed. His decision shall be final and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 88

If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the result of a resolution put to the vote, he may count the number of votes cast. If the chairman of the meeting fails to count the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who challenges the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall have the right to request counting of votes immediately after such announcement, the chairman of the meeting shall immediately count the votes.

Article 89

If counting of votes is held at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes of the shareholders' meeting shall include:

1. the total amount of their voting shares and its proportion to the total amount of shares of the company;
2. the time and place of the meeting;
3. The name of the presider of the meeting and the meeting agenda;
4. the main points on the matters of each speaker;
5. the voting result of each proposal;
6. the inquiries or suggestions of the shareholders as well as the corresponding replies or explanations of the board of directors and the board of supervisors;
7. other contents that shall be indicated in the minutes of the meeting as required by the shareholders' meeting and prescribed by the Articles of Association of the company.

The shareholders shall keep minutes of its decisions on the matters examined at their meetings. The directors attending a meeting shall sign the minutes. The minutes of the meeting and the attendance records signed by the attending shareholders and proxies shall be kept at the Company's domicile.

The above-mentioned minutes, attendance records and proxy shall not be disposed in 10 years.

Article 90

Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours free of charge. If any shareholder demands from the Company a photocopy of relevant minutes of meetings, the Company shall send such photocopies within seven days of receiving payment of reasonable charges.

CHAPTER 9 SPECIAL VOTING PROCEDURES FOR SHAREHOLDERS OF DIFFERENT CATEGORIES

Article 91

Shareholders who hold different categories of shares shall be shareholders of different categories. Apart from shareholders with other classes of shares, holders of domestic investment shares and holders of foreign investment shares listed overseas shall be recognised as different categories of shareholders. Shareholders of different categories shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 92

If the Company intends to change or abrogate the rights of shareholders of different categories, it may do so only after such change or abrogation has been approved by way of a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting and by a separate shareholders' meeting convened by the affected shareholders of different categories in accordance with Articles 94 to 98.

Article 93

The rights of shareholders of a certain category shall be deemed to have been changed or abrogated in the following conditions:

1. an increase or decrease in the number of shares of such category or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of a category having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such category;
2. a change of all or part of the shares of such category into shares of another category, a conversion of all or part of the shares of another category into shares of such category or the grant of the right to such change;
3. a removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such category;
4. a reduction or removal of a dividend preference or property distribution preference during liquidation of the Company, attached to shares of such category;
5. an addition, removal or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights to rights issues or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such category;

6. a removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in a particular currency attached to shares of such category;
7. a creation of a new category of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that category;
8. an imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer or ownership of shares of such category;
9. an issuance of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such category or category;
10. an increase in the rights and privileges of shares of another category;
11. restructuring of the Company causes shareholders of different categories to bear liability to different extents during the restructuring; or
12. an amendment or cancellation of the provisions of this Part.

Article 94

Shareholders of the affected category, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at shareholders' general meeting, shall have the right to vote at meetings of shareholders of different categories in respect of matters referred to in items (2) to (8) or (11) to (12) of Article 93, except that interested shareholders shall not have the right to vote at meetings of shareholders of different categories.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term "interested shareholders" shall have the following meanings:

1. if the Company has made a buy-back offer to all shareholders in the same proportion or has bought back its own shares through open transactions on a securities exchange in accordance with Article 32 hereof, the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 57 hereof shall be "interested shareholders";
2. if the Company has bought back its own shares by an agreement outside a securities exchange in accordance with Article 32 hereof, holders of share in relation to such agreement shall be "interested shareholders"; or
3. under a restructuring proposal of the Company, shareholders who will bear liability in a proportion smaller than that of the liability borne by other shareholders of the same category, or shareholders who have an interest in a restructuring proposal of the Company that is different from the interest in such restructuring proposal of other shareholders of the same category shall be "interested shareholders".

Article 95

Resolutions of a meeting of shareholders of different categories may be passed only by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of that category represented at the meeting in accordance with Article 94 hereof.

Article 96

When the Company is to hold a meeting of shareholders of different categories, it shall issue a written notice 45 days prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of that category of the matters to be examined at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders that intend to attend the meeting shall, within 20 days prior to the day of the meeting, deliver a written reply to the Company on meeting attendance.

If the number of share carrying the right to vote at the meeting represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting is more than half of the total number of shares of that category carrying the right to vote at the meeting, the Company may hold the meeting of shareholders of different categories. If not, the Company shall within five days inform the shareholders once again of the matters to be examined at the meeting and the date and place of the meeting in the form of a public announcement. Upon notification by public announcement, the Company may hold the meeting of shareholders of different categories.

For a meeting of shareholders of different categories (excluding renewal meeting) that deliberates to change the rights of holders of that category shares, the quorum shall be at least one-thirds of the number of holders of that category shares issued.

Article 97

The notice of a meeting of shareholders of different categories needs to be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

The procedures according to which a meeting of shareholders of different categories is held shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedures according to which a shareholders' general meeting is held. Provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company relevant to procedures for the holding of a shareholders' general meeting shall be applicable to meetings of shareholders of different categories.

Article 98

The special voting procedures for shareholders of different categories shall not apply:

1. where, as approved by way of a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, the Company issues, either separately or concurrently, domestic investment shares and foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China every 12 months, and the number of the domestic investment shares and foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China intended to be issued does not exceed 20% of the issued and outstanding shares of the respective categories; or
2. where the plan for issuance of domestic investment shares and foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China upon the establishment of the Company is completed within 15 months of being approved by the State Council Securities Commission.

CHAPTER 10 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 99

The Company has set up a board of directors, which is comprised of at least 6 directors. The Board has 1 chairman and 1 vice-chairman. The Board is independent of the controlling unit (namely companies or business units which enjoy the legal person status over the shareholding of the Company, and the same hereinafter).

At least half of the members of the Board shall be external directors (namely directors who do not hold any positions within the Company, and the same hereinafter) and there shall be 3 independent directors (namely directors that are independent of the Company's shareholders and do not hold any positions in the Company, and the same hereinafter) serving the Board.).

Article 100

Directors shall be elected by the shareholders' general meeting and serve a term of 3 years. A director may serve consecutive terms if reelected upon the expiration of his term.

The intention of directors candidates nomination and the candidates' willingness to accept the nomination shall be in written notice. The written notice shall be given to the Company not earlier than the day after the notice of shareholders' general meeting being sent out, and not later than the day before 7 days prior to the shareholders' general meeting. Members of the First Board of Directors shall be nominated by the sponsors and elected by the inaugural general meeting of the Company.

The minimum length of the period, during which notice to the Company of the intention to propose a person for election as a director and during which notice to the Company by such person of his willingness to be elected may be given, will be at least 7 days.

The chairman of the board and the vice chairman of the board shall be elected and removed by more than half of all the directors. The chairman of the board and the vice chairman of the board shall serve a term of 3 years and may serve consecutive terms if reelected upon the expiration of their terms.

Under the premise of complying with related laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders' general meeting have power by special resolutions to remove any director before the expiration of his term of office (but without any prejudice to any claim for damages under any contract).

An outside director shall have sufficient time and necessary knowledge to perform his/her duties. In case an outside director performs his/her duties, the Company must supply necessary information and material. Independent (non-executive) directors may report directly to the shareholders' general meeting, the securities regulatory body under the State Council and other relevant authorities.

Executives from holding institutions that serve concurrently in the Companies as chairman, vice-chairman of the board of directors or executive director shall not exceed two in number.

Any person appointed by the directors to fill a casual vacancy on or as an addition to the board shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting of the issuer, and shall then be eligible for re-election.

Directors need not be Company shareholders.

Article 101

The board of directors shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting and shall exercise the following functions and powers:

1. to be responsible for convening shareholders' general meeting and to report on its work to the shareholders' general meeting;
2. to implement the resolutions of shareholders' general meeting;
3. to decide on the business plans and investment plans of the Company;
4. to formulate the proposed annual financial budgets and final accounts of the Company;

5. to formulate the plans for profit distribution and making up losses of the Company;
6. to formulate plans for the increase or reduction in the registered capital of the Company and for the issue of the Company bonds;
7. to draft plans for the merger, division or dissolution of the Company;
8. to decide on the establishment of the Company's internal management organization;
9. to hire or dismiss the manager of the Company, hire or dismiss the deputy manager(s) and personnel in charge of financial affairs as proposed by the manager, and to decide on their remuneration;
10. to formulate the basic management system of the Company; and
11. to formulate proposals for amendment of the Articles of Association of the Company.
12. under the premise of complying with laws, regulations and the Articles of Association, to exercise the rights of the Company of financing and loaning; to decide the mortgaging, lending, contracting or transferring of major assets of the Company; and to authorize the general/deputy manager to exercise the rights described in this item within the specific limits.
13. to propose to the shareholders' general meeting to employ or dismiss accounting firm serving the Company;
14. Other functions and rights stipulated in the Articles of Association or authorized by the shareholders' general meeting.

Resolutions by the board of directors on matters referred to in the preceding paragraph may be passed by the affirmative vote of more than half of the directors with the exception of resolutions on matters referred to in items (6), (7) and (11), which shall require the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of the directors.

Article 102

The resolution of the board meeting may be voted on by show of hands or written voting. Each Director shall have one vote.

Article 103

That, subject to such exceptions specified in the articles of association as the Exchange may approve, a director shall not vote on any board resolution approving any contract or arrangement or any other proposal in which he or any of his associates has a material interest nor shall he be counted in the quorum present at the meeting.

- (1) the giving of any security or indemnity either:—
 - (a) to the director or his associate(s) in respect of money lent or obligations incurred or undertaken by him or any of them at the request of or for the benefit of the issuer or any of its subsidiaries; or
 - (b) to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the issuer or any of its subsidiaries for which the director or his associate(s) has himself/ themselves assumed responsibility in whole or in part and whether alone or jointly under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (2) any proposal concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the issuer or any other company which the issuer may promote or be interested in for subscription or purchase where the director or his associate(s) is/are or is/are to be interested as a participant in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of the offer;
- (3) any proposal concerning any other company in which the director or his associate(s) is/are interested only, whether directly or indirectly, as an officer or executive or shareholder or in which the director or his associate(s) is/are beneficially interested in shares of that company, provided that the director and any of his associates are not in aggregate beneficially interested in 5% or more of the issued shares of any class of such company (or of any third company through which his interest or that of any of his associates is derived) or of the voting rights;

1. to provide over shareholders' general meeting and to convene and preside over meetings of the board of directors;
2. to examine the implementation of resolutions of the board of directors;
3. to sign bond certificates issued by the Company; and
4. other functions and powers granted by the board of directors.

If the chairman of the board is unable to perform his functions and powers, he may instruct a vice chairman of the board to exercise such functions and powers on his behalf.

Article 107

Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least twice a year. Meetings of the board of directors shall be convened by the chairman of the board by giving a notice to all directors 10 days before the meetings are held.

Under any of the following circumstances, the chairman of the board of director shall convene a extraordinary meeting with 5 working days:

1. more than two-thirds of the directors jointly propose a meeting;
2. the board of supervisors proposes a meeting;
3. The General Manager proposes a meeting.

Article 108

The way and time limit of the notice of convening the board meeting and the extraordinary board meetings are as follows:

If the time and place of the meeting is decided in advance by the board of directors, it is not necessary to send out notice prior to the meeting.

1. Where an extraordinary board meetings is to be convened, the secretary to the board shall, within not less than 7 days and no more than 10 days prior to the meeting, notify all the directors, supervisors and the general manager of the time, place and way of the board meeting by telegraph, telex, fax, EMS, registered mail or personal service.
2. If the time and place of the meeting is not decided in advance by the board of directors, the secretary to the board shall, at least 10 days prior to the meeting, notify all the directors, supervisors and the general manager of the time, place and way of the board meeting by telegraph, telex, fax, EMS, registered mail or personal service.

The notice shall be in Chinese. The English version may be attached when necessary, including the agenda of the meeting.

The Company shall notify all the directors of the significant matters to be decided by the board of directors with sufficient information within the time stipulated in this Article and in accordance with the procedures stipulated. The directors may demand supplementary information. Where more than one-quarter of the directors or more than 2 outside directors deem the information insufficient or the proof unclear, they may propose jointly to postpone the board meeting or part of the matters. The board of directors shall adopt the proposal.

It shall be deemed as that the notice has been given to the director, if the director failed to attend the meeting and failed to, prior to or at the attendance, declare that he/she hasn't received the notice of the meeting

The meeting board of directors or the extraordinary meeting may be held in ways of conference call or similar telecommunication mode, only if the directors participating in the meeting can hear others clearly and communicate with each other. All the directors shall be deemed to have attended the meeting in person.

Article 109

Meetings of the board of directors may be held only if more than half of the directors attend. Each director shall be entitled to one vote. Resolutions of the board of directors must be adopted by the affirmative vote of more than half of all the directors. When the number of votes for and against a resolution is equal, the chairman of the board shall be entitled to one additional vote.

That, where any shareholder is, under these GEM Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 110

Meetings of the board of directors shall be attended by the directors in person. If a director cannot attend a meeting for any reason, he may entrust in writing another director with attending the meeting on his behalf. The instrument of entrustment shall specify the scope of authority.

A director who attends a meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of authority granted. If a director fails to attend a meeting of the board of directors and has not appointed a representative to attend on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights in respect of that meeting.

In case that directors have been absent from the board meeting for twice in row, nor entrust other directors to attend the board meeting, the directors in question shall be deemed to fail to perform the obligations, and the board of directors, the board of supervisors or shareholders shall propose the general meeting of shareholders to dismiss and replace such directors.

For issues that need the approval of the resolutions of the board, the resolution may be effective without convening a board meeting provided that the board of directors had send the written resolutions to all directors, and the number of signing for the resolutions meets the requirement stipulated in 109 of the Articles of Association.

Article 111

The board of director may convene the Company's meeting in way of written proposals instead of convening the regular board meetings. The proposals shall be complete and be given to each director by personal service (including EMS), mail, or fax. The proposals shall be the resolutions of the board of directors if the proposals have been given to each director and the number of directors who state clearly their agreement with signatures up to quorum and the proposals with signatures have been sent back to the secretary to the board of directors by personal service (including EMS), mail, or fax.

The board of directors shall keep minutes of its decisions on the matters examined at their meetings. The opinions expressed by an independent director shall be clearly recorded in the board's resolutions. The directors attending a meeting and the person taking minutes shall sign the minutes of that meeting. The directors shall bear liability for the decisions of the board of directors. Where a resolution of the board of directors is in violation of laws, administrative regulations or the Company's Articles of Association, thereby causing serious losses to the Company, the directors who took part in the resolution shall be liable to the Company for damages. However, where a director can prove that he expressed his opposition to such resolution when it was put to the vote, and that such opposition was recorded in minutes of the meeting, the director may be relieved from such liability.

5. a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of a company being controlled as referred to in item (4) hereof.

Article 135

The obligation and credibility of the Company's directors, supervisors, manager and other senior management staff does not necessarily cease with the termination of their office. Their confidentiality obligation in relation to the Company's trade secrets shall remain upon termination of their office. The term for which other obligations shall continue shall be decided upon in accordance with the principle of fairness, depending on the time lapse between the termination and the occurrence of the matter as well as the circumstances and conditions under which the relationship with the Company terminates.

Article 136

A director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of the Company may be relieved from liability for a specific breach of obligations after the shareholders' general meeting has been informed, except in circumstances as specified in Article 56 hereof.

Article 137

If a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of the Company has directly or indirectly vested a material interest in a contract, transaction or arrangement concluded or planned by the Company (except his employment contract with the Company), he shall disclose the nature and extent of his interest to the board of directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the matter is normally subject to the approval of the board of directors.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff of the Company has disclosed such interest to the board of directors as required under the preceding paragraph hereof and the matter has been approved by the board of directors at a meeting in which he was not counted in the quorum and had refrained from voting, the Company shall have the right to void the contract, transaction or arrangement, except the other party is a bona fide party acting without knowledge of the breach of obligation by the director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff concerned.

A director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of the Company shall be deemed to have an interest in any contract, transaction or arrangement in which a Connected Person of that director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff has an interest.

Article 138

If a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of the Company gives a written notice to the board of directors before the conclusion of the contract, transaction or arrangement is first considered by the Company, stating that due to the contents of the notice, he has an interest in the contract, transaction or arrangement that may subsequently be made by the Company, such director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff of the Company shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Articles of this Part to have declared his interest, insofar as attributable to the scope stated in the notice.

Article 139

The Company may not in any manner pay tax on behalf of its directors, supervisors, manager or other senior management staff.

Article 140

The Company may not directly or indirectly provide a loan or loan security for its directors, supervisors, manager or other senior management staff, those of its parent company, or Connected Persons of the above-mentioned persons.

1. The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not apply to the following circumstances:
2. the provision of a loan or loan security by the Company for a subsidiary of the Company;
3. the provision of a loan or loan security or other funds by the Company to a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of the Company under an employment contract approved by the shareholders' general meeting, so as to enable him to pay the expenses incurred for the sake of the Company or for the performance of his Company duties; and
4. the provision of a loan or loan security by the Company to a relevant director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of the Company or to a Connected Person thereof on normal commercial terms, if the ordinary business scope of the Company includes the lending of money or the provision of loan security.

Article 141

A loan provided by the Company in violation of the preceding Article shall be immediately repayable by the recipient of the loan, regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 142

The Company may not be forced to perform a loan security provided by the Company in violation of the first paragraph of Article 140, except:

1. when the loan is provided to a Connected Person of a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of the Company or its parent company, the loan provider is not aware of the condition; and
2. the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully sold by the loan provider to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 143

For the purposes of the preceding Article of this Part, the term “security” shall include an act whereby a guarantor assumes liability or provides property to guarantee or secure the performance of obligations by an obligator.

Article 144

If a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior management staff of the Company breaches his obligations to the Company, the Company shall, in addition to any rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations, have a right to:

1. require the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff to compensate for the losses sustained by the Company as a consequence of his dereliction of duty;
2. rescind any contract or transaction concluded by the Company with the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff and contracts or with a third party (where such third party is aware or should be aware that the director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff representing the Company was in breach of his obligations to the Company);
3. require the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff to surrender the gains derived from the breach of his obligations;
4. recover any funds received by the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff that should have been received by the Company, including (but not limited to) commissions; and
5. require the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff to return the interest earned or possibly earned on the funds that should have been given to the Company.

Article 145

The Company shall include a written contract with each director and supervisor of the Company concerning his emoluments. Such contract shall be approved by the shareholder' general meeting before it is entered into. The above-mentioned emoluments shall include:

1. emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management staff of the Company;
2. emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management staff of a subsidiary of the Company;
3. emoluments otherwise in connection with the management of the Company or any subsidiary thereof; and
4. funds as compensation for his loss of office or retirement to the aforementioned directors and supervisors. A director or supervisor may not sue the Company for his benefits due to him on the basis of the above-mentioned matters, except under a contract as mentioned above.

Article 146

The Company shall specify in the contract concluded with a director or supervisor of the Company concerning his emoluments that in the event of a takeover of the Company, a director or supervisor of the Company shall, subject to prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, have the right to receive the compensation or other funds obtainable for loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term "a takeover of the Company" shall refer to any of the following circumstances:

1. anyone makes a general offer to all the shareholders; or
2. anyone makes a general offer so that the offeror becomes a controlling shareholder as defined in Article 57 hereof.

If the relevant director or supervisor has failed to comply with this Article, any fund received by him shall belong to those persons that have sold their shares as a result of their acceptance of the above-mentioned offer, and the expenses incurred in distribution of such fund on a pro rata basis shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and may not be paid out of such fund.

CHAPTER 15 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS AND DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS

Article 147

The Company shall formulate its own financial and accounting systems in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and China's accounting standards formulated by the State Council's department in charge of finance.

Article 148

The Company shall prepare financial reports at the end of each fiscal year. Such reports shall be examined and verified according to law.

Financial reports include:

1. Balance Sheet;
2. Income Statement;
3. Cash Flow Statement;

Article 149

The board of directors of the Company shall place before the shareholders at each shareholders' general meeting such financial reports as relevant laws, administrative regulations and normative documents promulgated by the local government and the authorities-in-charge require the Company to prepare.

Article 150

The financial reports of the Company shall be made available for inspection by shareholders 20 days prior to an annual shareholders' meeting. Each shareholder of the Company shall have the right to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Part.

The financial reports and the report of Board of Directors shall be delivered to the shareholders of foreign investment shares listed outside the PRC, i.e. holders of H Shares by per-paid mail to the recipient's address shown in the register of shareholders, at least 21 days prior to the date of the Shareholders' General Meeting.

Article 151

The financial statements of the Company shall be prepared not only in accordance with China's accounting standards, laws and regulations but also in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place(s) outside the People's Republic of China where shares of the Company are listed. If there are major differences in the financial statements prepared in accordance with these two sets of accounting standards, such differences shall be stated in notes appended to such financial statements. For purposes of the Company's distribution of after-tax profits in a given fiscal year, the smaller amount of after-tax profits shown in the above-mentioned two kinds of financial statements shall govern.

Article 152

Interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with China's accounting standards, laws and regulations as well as international standards or the accounting standards of the place(s) outside the People's Republic of China where shares of the Company are listed.

Article 153

The Company shall prepare annual financial report, interim report or quarterly report in accordance with the GEM Listing Rules of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited each fiscal year. The annual financial report shall be published within 3 months after the end of the fiscal year. The interim report shall be published within 45 days after the end of the first 6 months. The quarterly report shall be published within 45 days after the end of every quarter.

Article 154

The Company may not establish any account books other than statutory account books.

Article 155

The after-tax profit of the Company shall be distributed in the following sequence:

1. make up losses;
2. withdraw legal accumulation fund;
3. withdraw statutory welfare funds;
4. withdraw optional accumulation fund;
5. pay the dividends of ordinary shares.

Legal accumulation fund shall be 10 percent of the annual after-tax profits. Where the accumulated amount of the legal accumulation fund of the company exceeds 50 percent of its registered capital, further allocation may be dispensed with.

The Board of Directors shall decide the proportion of items (3)~(5) above-mentioned according to laws, administrative regulations and the business situation of the Company and submit it to the shareholders's general meeting for approval.

The Company shall not distribute dividends before making up for losses and withdrawing legal accumulation fund and legal public welfare funds.

Article 156

The capital common reserve shall include the following funds:

1. the premiums obtained from the issue of shares in excess of the par; and
2. other revenue required by the State Council's department in charge of finance to be included in the capital common reserve.

Article 157

The reserve fund of the Company shall be used,

1. to make up for the company's losses; or
